We unthinkingly with one-another see . . .

The rising of the necessary frame . . .

In the arena where nothing may remain absolutely.

'Midst Fun and Work Scholars Study

Summer School in High School was only for the lazy

now the ambitious read ethics on the elevated tacitus between the truckloads lead three lives instead of the usual two worker, scholar, kid

everything moves faster
"so much for the French Revolution tomorrow we'll deal with Bismarck you can cover Napoleon on your own tonight"

The pickled cats at least are dissected in summer before they decay

yet one studies out of doors on the lawn or by the water tower and school is less a profession more a pleasure after 539 bushels of radishes or the invoices for same the reading (of a Hemingway or a Wittgenstein) is a luxury less than a duty

one feels quite privileged even lazy

Good Times Spent for Good Purpose

"And away we go . . ." Rev. Carl J. Burlage, S. J., tour director, leads the way through the streets of Pompeii.

Every moment
C-O-U-N-T-S even vacations

Summer tours give course credits 1-2-3-4-5-6

They jet from class to class

snooping at gargoyles proceeding through museums, galleries

taking notes in Paris (shame!),
Rome, Bruges, London,
Venice, Chartres

Eight weeks
("We've lived!)

Now what?

Top: The Houses of Parliament and Big Ben mark the end of the road as Fr. Burlage, George Sullivan, and Fr. Martin look back on two months of discovery and enjoyment.

Middle: Around the world, horses and little boys have the same appeal to all.

Lower: "Take the bus and . . ." After four thousand miles, buses leave something to be desired.

On the way to Stratford, tour members stopped for a quick visit to historic Oxford University.

Arright BOY

This isn't like the Summer Camp
your mommy sends you to.

This is the Army
See?
Climb, wade through,
polish, duck from everything.

That's right kid now it's your turn to take command plan, conduct
operate, engage in all of it.

O.K. Soldier
Six weeks at Fort Riley and maybe (just maybe)
you're an officer

Got that?
yessir

WHAT BOY?
YESSIR!!!

Yessir!

Peoria, Oak Park, South Shore - Hello, I'm From . .

We were impressed overwhelmed by the masses of buildings

so confusing so new so many we later thought so shoddy

of people thousands milling
with great determination

In the gymnasium
ancient and hollow;
concrete classrooms snugglyrectangular
Important Persons echoed at us

The Dean of Whatsit?
Father Who?

"...more work than you have ever encountered before.."

Welcome!

welcome teas stand in line and get a little tag
"Hi! my name is what's yours?"

pitterpatterpitterpatter welcome mixers

in the cavernous campus center filled with smoke and freshmen and smoke
"Hi! my name's . . .

Hey . . . where are you?"
shuffleshufflebump shuffle welcome smokers gee

you mean you guys live in this house all alone?
a what? in the basement
"Hi, my name's brother . . .

Bowl Challenges Brain Power

Since we lost no one really cared

We made some excuses — the buzzers were different from the ones we practiced on all Summer.

The questions unexpected

The tensions extraordinary

If
we had won . . .

Bands

Charles H. Kellstadt, Rev. Hussey, John F. Smith, Jr., Rev. James F. Maguire, S. J., Charles C. Kerwin, and Dr. John F. Sheehan break ground for Lovola's new medical center in Hines, Illinois.

Medical Center's Genesis

Dr. John F. Sheehan, dean of the Stritch School of Medicine, addresses the morning session.

Because of:
the "serpent and the staff" educators, physicians scientists, business leaders, and civic prominents devote:
time, money,
energy, talk,
minds and a theory of evolution of a new realization in an expanding university
for:
skill, acknowledgement betterment and 4,800,000 patients in need of treatment and a future evolves:
ceremony, pride,
fulfillment through the new center for medical studies and greater medical achievements.

Sword of Loyola Awards

The Sword which Ignatius offered to God Loyola offers to James McDivitt and Maxime Faget

for courage, dedication, service:

qualities
of soldiers,
of educators

Between men whose traditions include both

Most Rev. Cletus F. O'Donnell prepares to present the Sword to its 1966 recipients.

After the presentation, Mr. T. J. Connelly, Dr. Francis J. Braceland, Very Rev. James Maguire, S. J., and Most Rev. Cletus F. O'Donnell congratulate award recipients Lt. Col. James A. McDivitt and Maxime Faget.

Community

For a day and a night once every year important people honor IMPORTANT PEOPLE who are meaningful to the university as-a-part-of-the-community and taken all by itself.

The University
singles out those whom it admires in business government
the world;

points . . . . . to students it wishes to praise and in so doing defines its tastes its likes and aspirations its ideal self.

ALUMNI AWARD WINNERS – (from left) George A. Rooney, Catherine Purcell, Norton F. O'Meara, Harry M. Klenda, D.D.S., Robert G. Denkewalter, John F. Callahan, Essie Anglum.

From Mount Olympus

Came the Greeks

From every corner of Hellas From Columbia unto Chicago Avenue Came the noble heroes
Heroes of the Greeks

Came the fearless Hellenes Hellenes Pietsch and Schmucker From every tribe of Attica From every house of the Pelopennese From Sigma Delts and Delta Sigs
From Alpha Delts and Pi Alphs

Unto the sacred plain
The plain behind the El tracks Unto the field of honor
The field between the parking lots
Came the noble heroes
In sacred procession
Came the brave athletes
In a short wavy line

Came to compete with fleet foot
And with javelin
Came to contest with fiberglass pole
And with old bicycle wheels

Back to every corner of Hellas Went the noble Hellenes Noble in sad procession

Except the TKEs, who won.

Six Characters . . .

Perfectly ordinary students except of course

an occasional beard hair over the eyes
an extraordinary incidence of hoarseness

"Hey Phil
gimme back my rough . . ."

Really regular collegians

except of course
on certain nights
Kings Lear
Madwomen of Chaillot an incredible number of Renaissance courtiers

"Upstage me again . . . and I'll run you through with your own spear . . ."

Healthy American scholars

except of course
the time lost now and then rehearsals set-building sessions an astonishing variety of conversations

"But dahling . . .
I simply can't study Calculus now . . . my public is waiting . . ."

Little Me

The Rite of Fall

On the first night of the festival the warriors returned from battle having smitten the Windsor-tribe.
The great fires burnt before the long-houses; the maidens danced with the pom-poms; the sky was lit with divine fires: Then did the people retire into the long-house jerking, fruging, twisting, waltzing . . . until, at the stroke of twelve thirty seven, they mounted their Edsels, Nashes and noble Packards and galloped into the night to study for Ethics next morning.

Elephants towed down Sheridan Road
St. Patrick,and Whales and vikings with sails and none were undone by the bridge of the EL it went well our parade

LOYOLA SAILS TO

A race eating pie
(here's a plum in your eye) As two-hundred men push a ball six-feet tall grunting, and hunting the sophomore Tsar who went far far away

Pretty young ladies like bats out of Hades scratching and biting and running like lightening and all playing ball in this "powderpuff Game" (all the same
what a waste)

At a much better ball for a girl, all in all, in a ballroom (more clean) We, with pomp, crowned our queen who would reign (only feign) over all you see here for a year is that clear?

LU Keglers Roll Over, Don't Play Dead,

It sounds easy to roll a hard heavy ball down a long narrow lane at ten indian-club pins and they aren't even moving!
Try it!
Try what our kegler Ramblers did so well without a large home-crowd watching without cheerleaders cheering all they have is quiet when they bear down on those ten helpless but glue-bottomed pins
The season—a fair one this year with wins though not without losses: in their Midwest Intercollegiate Conference a .500 percentage

Have Fair Season

Mr. Charles Greenstein (coach), Ron Baran, Phil Takacs, Wally Thiele, Frank Lawlor, Al Chvalo.

Aqua-Ramblers . . .

To get a better start at the sound of the gun to execute a perfectly timed turn to have a twenty-five yard lead to break time records all the year through to reach a peak in perfect form to fire a ball past an out-stretched goalie is to be an Aqua-Rambler the Aqua-Ramblers produced an All-America: (Paul Akers)

and they produced an All-Unforgettable: (Ron Koehler)
and they produced a team: (Rambler effort)

the season was one of Loyola swimmers' best with but one loss and a hope of no more

Coach Ralph Erickson gives the team a pep talk.

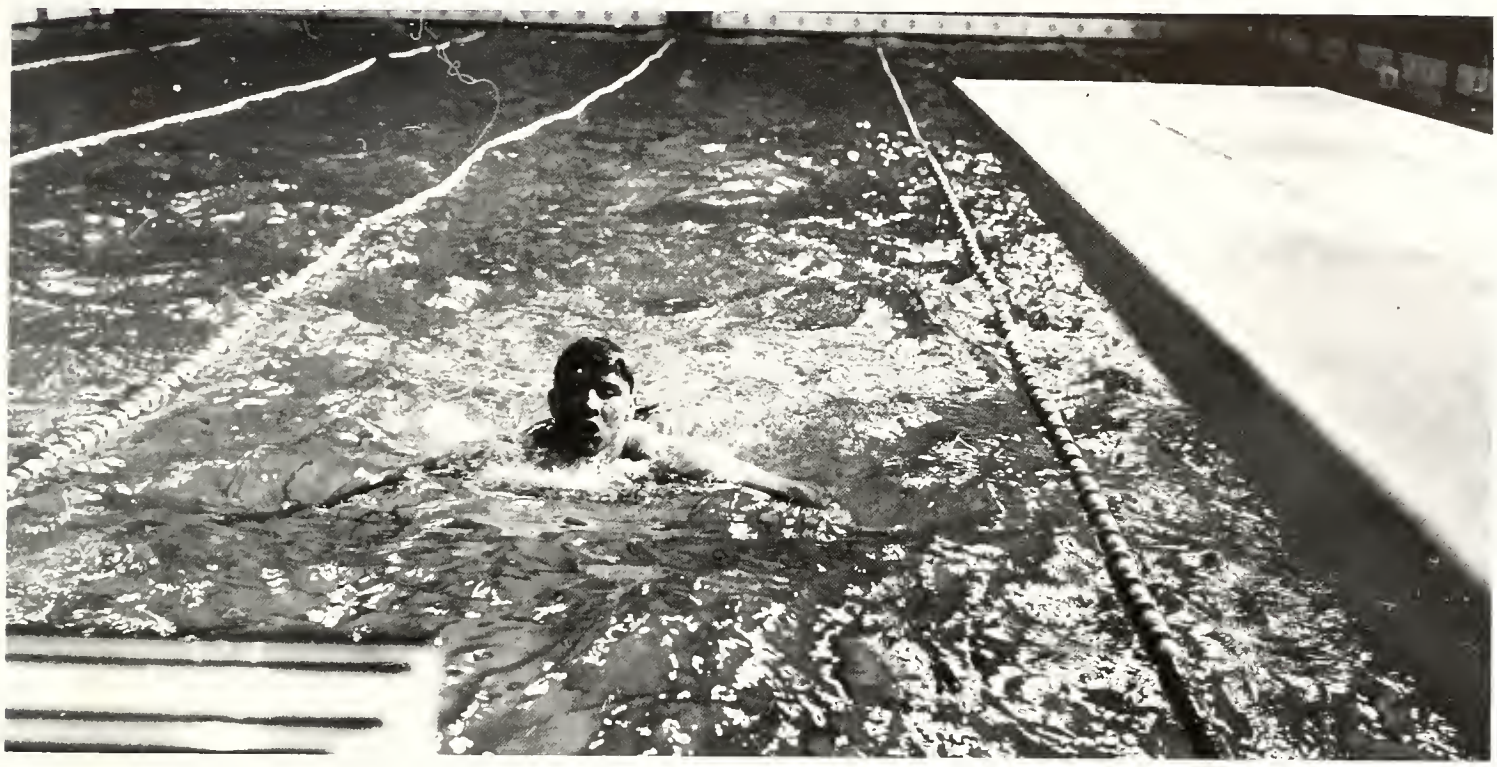
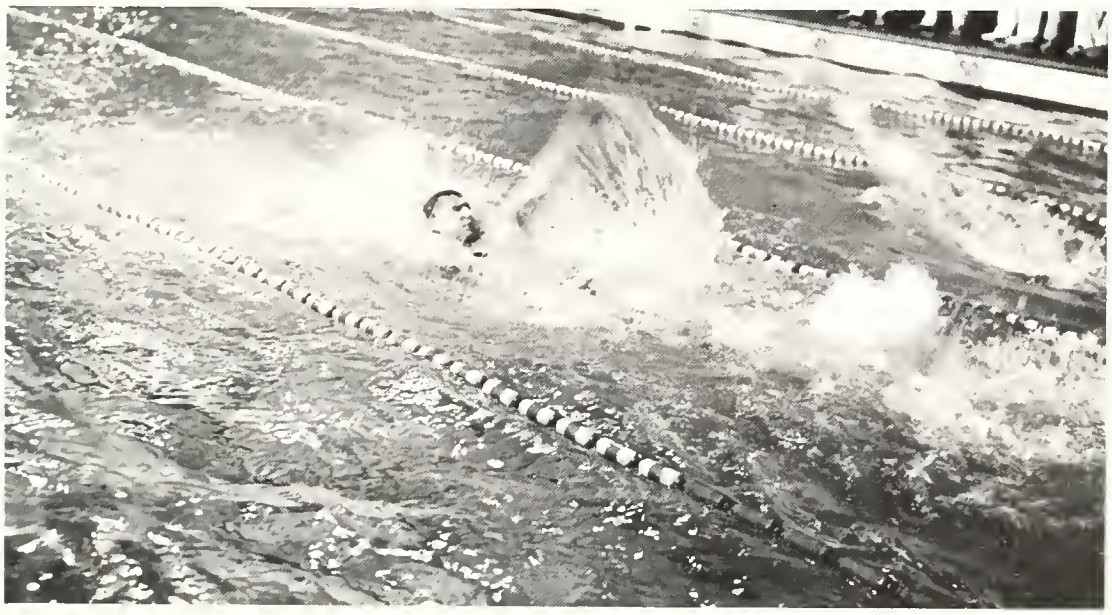
Succumb to the Elements of Water and Time





Cindermen Manage To Pull Out Hard-won Victories . . .

The hours and hours of practice the twisting, torturing miles that maul the insides of cindermen and harriers all for what . . . ?
for anticipating nerves for tightening muscles for a good position on the line for a quicker start than the next man for the mental attitude not to give out, fall below for a first place or for a self-satisfaction

Track coaches Jerry Weiland and Jerry Hahn survey practice at Montrose Harbor.

Administration

President Maguire Creates Dynamic, Progressive Policy

Administration is Responsibility Answers . . .
"To whom should one turn, whom ask, blame, question, praise?" Administration answers . . .
It is said that it was not the same ten years ago (when our President came from Xavier in Cincinnati) There were not the advisories:
Businessmen Women
Alumni Citizens Laymen-as-such a third of the classrooms a quarter of the courses three of the schools did not exist Yet the difference seems less important than what is:
Loyola
whether kept or changed or bettered substantial in size, in reputation, in breadth and tolerance The lives of 15,000: students, teachers, workers — beings touched, nurtured, heard, encouraged, amplified, made more themselves Though little known to most of them the actions of the President — what he does or does not — will shape the lives of these,
of all they touch and shape Responsibility is Administration

Grad Students Follow Rugged Road to Academe

DR. PAUL KINIERY, Assistant Dean

DR. RICHARD A. MATRE, Dean

The phrase sounds somehow ambiguous "Graduate School" for most it is really apprenticeship still not quite for real yet as difficult as thought it were still the money flows from the student yet more and more his becomes the greater share of work still learning, but learning now to a purpose — learning a technique, the ability to produce and produce he does, until finally what was avocation is profession trade living.

what we work for

Home Study Division

Because he is in the army or because he works from 8 to 5 and again from 5 to who-knows-when not everyone can come to school so Loyola's Home Study Division since 1921 has come to soldiers and housewives mechanics and teachers in the thousands with the same course material presented at Loyola

so
whatever he has to do a man can make the most of his precious little time.

Loyola's Guidance Center

The world escapes from children too as suddenly as much as it does from us

The Guidance Center
trys to stretch their youthful reach out to their parents to their schools

it trys with clinical psychologists and with well-trained students

And the children grasp and reach as well

Business Administration

Man does not live by bread alone as much as man lives by bread it is in cooperation with other men in the School of Business Administration the necessities of accounting the obligations of business law the powers and forces of economics the rules of marketing the customs of management are tools

Econ-Finance Society

It has been said too often:
heat does not melt the tons of tons of steel nor the motion of the hand of man but the concept which the workman the supervisor buyer-seller entrepreneur hordes holds back plants a little pays out is-steward-to sets free wealth-power-wealth are one.

It is said too rarely:
good can be made of this as well.

S.A.M. Communicates

Management is coordination: of the activities of persons of the presences of objects of all the forces public goods communciation with the one presentation of the other all separate persons—things it is not unlike choreography altogether unlike a grinding pushing-itself-each-other m-a-c-h-i-n-e

for it leaves each element itself and creates only coordination

The Science of Business Law Aids the Wheel of Commerce

A science which gives common meaning to the terms of understandings which make commerce possible is business law which makes possible trust (contracts, bonds, securities) on which turns all of commerce

DR. JOHN A. ZVETINA, Department Chairman

DONALD G. MEYER, Department Chairman

A most hidden thing is the desire of an individual man at this moment to please a dozen men for a dozen months would seem impossible:
a matter of luck and guesswork yet men begin so much alike associate so much together are pleased with shapes colors results in such a way that if we watch them wisely they will reveal (implicitly) what they desire

Bus. Ad. Coed Club

The life-experience of a woman
somehow a little different from . . .

everything she encounters even the rushing, sexless world of commerce

must come away a little different:
may be treated separately

Oh, to be young again!

The membership of Sigma Theta Tau honorary represents the most outstanding students in the School of Nursing.

Ward council discussions provide theoretical solutions to usual and unusual difficulties.

Student aid training includes technical knowledge of hospital equipment.

Christmas decorations provide an atmosphere to uplift falling spirits.

The rewards of nursing, though few, far outweigh the problems.

Hospital training links studies and professional nursing.

Enthusiastic care lends cheer to an otherwise dreary stay.

Restless minds while away the hours at those ever-intriguing tasks.

Education on treatments and cares prevents complications.

Loyola will honor student nurses by capping, striping and pinning ceremonies for the last time this year.

You will sense something of the character of ASA"

"You want to understand more than this about a group of women?
You are not a man then, or you have not met many ladies . . ."

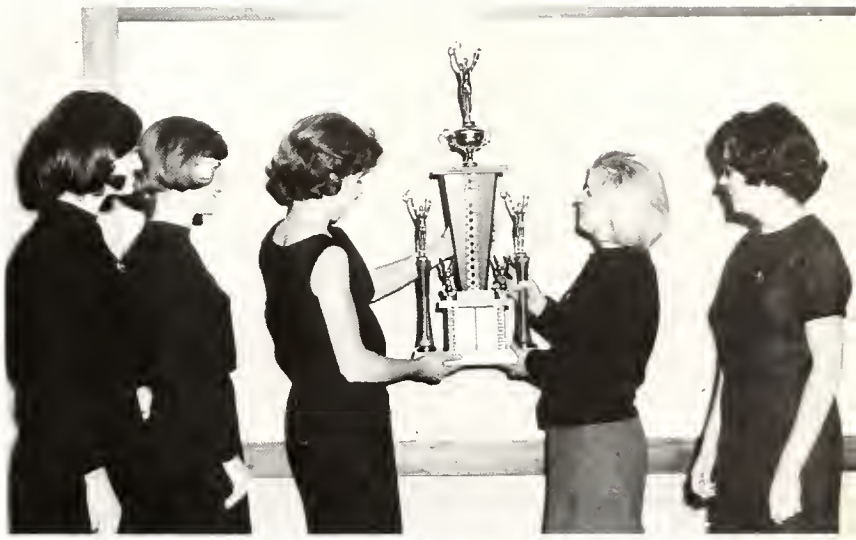
Sorority meetings bring members and pledges from both campuses to the LSC Campus Center.



One of Alpha Sigma Alpha's trophies wins an admiring glance from Susan Lowell, Jeanie Hinderscheid, Jo-Carol Blumenthal, Noreen Mueller and Carol Gregory.

Pi Alpha Lambda Follows Tradition

Continued tradition is Pi Alpha Lambda its 1924 founder
Rev. James J. Mertz, S.J. still active
its initial purpose funds to build Madonna della Strada
Mother's Day communion breakfast these things shadow the ordinary:

Pow Wow, fair, athletics Pi Alpha Lambda social with religious spirit is prototype to most Loyola greeks

Phi Kappa Theta
newly national Catholic for 35 years collected books (twelve thousand) for world distribution kept its high scholastic average had a hand in nearly all events fraternal or common little manpower did it:

the new name of the established fraternity stands out above the slosh

Loyola national is ADG the Alpha Delta Gamma began in 1924
a Catholic fraternity as small as (then) Loyola

ADG has grown to national importance among (big) Loyola's biggest winner of the football crown provider of leaders in student government social organization the Catholic fraternity so Catholic-education-in-itself maintains its old ideal:

"respect the individual" so (paraphrased)
runs success' secret

When a lady's name is changed there's something happenin' Phi Mu (nee Delta Zeta Chi) seems the same:
it's in on all the projects communion breakfast candlelight cotillion
    all the same
the bicycle rides, sleighrides enthusiasm (name the athlete of the year) they've gone national but still entirely ours we fondly hope

Oldest and Largest Loyola Sorority: Theta Phi Alpha

The Theta Phi Alpha:
a sensible, soberish, competent crowd (not too loud) are the oldest and largest have all of the what? meaning firsts

Sigma Delts - A Broad Range of Men, Ideas

Who founded Greek Week, wiped out hazing, bought a house big enough to contain Chamberlain and have paid for one-half percent of it?

Who won awards in IFC Sing, Pow Wow Week, three "V-Shows" and Lord knows if they chose enough trophies to wish the trophies were real bronze?

Who can be found on Business Council, Arts Council, chairmanships, committees, wins Blue Keys?
If you please, it is Sigma Delta Phi.

Who's the largest independent frat?
One needn't say.
Who do social work; run fund drives?
There's but one may.
Who has every kind of membership from Z to A?
Who's important in Curtain Guild Society?
Who has R.O.T.C. officers by twos and threes?
Who's not tired of reading all of these banalities?

The Sigma Delta Phi!

Attractive Steblerites:

We find gestures in one direction:
A Halloween open house
A barbecue called "Scrumptious" A party named "T.O.T.S.N."

Gestures in another . . .
A "Mother-Daughter Weekend"

Yet a different gesture:
A "Student-Faculty Tea"

There also exist trophies — from Variety Shows, Pow Wows . . .

There exists a party named after the Blessed Mother (for she is the patron of this place)

And there is a statement that "Each one of these aspects helps make up a 'whole Catholic Woman'"

Trite is whatever one says about Alpha Tau Delta (Alpha Tau Delta Alpha Tau Delta?)

Unaccountably yet year after year the prettiest of fraternities the events in which they take part leave out only intramural football the activities they schedule for themselves include everyone else's list and more they limit themselves only in being an exclusively nursing fraternity

It does not seem to have hurt

The men have lived who disliked the place, Said the inmates were snoopy, and lacked social grace, And from windows were wont to throw snow in one's face, But each ended up as a dreadful case,
For it's all for one and one for all
And they've over a hundred in Chamberlain Hall.

And women have breathed who felt cramped within Though the ceilings are high and the walls are thin; On their little complaints there's no cause to begin, Since their bodies are now with the next of kin,
For it's all for one and one for all
And they've over a hundred
  in Chamberlain Hall.

So if you're prudent you'll follow me—
Attend their luau
  and drink their tea, Delight in their shy curiosity
Like a flower sad in a clearing's free.
For it's all for one and one for all
In a nest of temptresses wall to wall, They have more than enough in Chamberlain Hall.

In five short years
Loyola's Delta Sigma Phi has moved:

From a dozen brothers in the local Psi Delta Phi to 33,000 brothers in the international Delta Sigma Phi

From whatever room in whatever building The university could spare to a home of their own big enough to rent out a spare room

From a single chapter to 103

From a six-year tradition to sixty-seven

The merger has given Loyola's Delta Sigma Phi wealth, influence, breadth, bills—the materials for the achievement of its goal—a totally developed man.

Loyola Hall Surrounded by University Environment

Atmosphere of Loneliness, Atmosphere of Togetherness

The University is home and life for those who'll live it at Loyola Hall neighbors are a library gymnasium, lecture halls . . . the clock and parish church the tower and chapel of the college indifference is harder to maintain beauty hard to miss the first thing of morning the way home nights Loyola and all its opportunities are neighborhood life institutionalized has its drawbacks but nothing can outweigh the contrast — going to college vs.
being at the university

Delta Sigma Delta and Loyola more that a professional fraternity:

integral to the institution

members in administration student body everywhere in the Dental School a social factor too through eighty-one years of exuberance

Delta Sigma Delta
you can count out of nothing

Their aims are not uncommon: excellence social professional academic devotion to school, fraternity, dentistry but Xi Psi Phi has novel ways of aiming:

contributions to the Xi Psi Phi Quarterly give permanence communicate Xi Psi Phi's transactions a golf outing added to the usual inject essential creativity in ordinary, honorable programs.

A home and its meaning companionship guidance are open to all whatever their accidents only they meet the standards:
striving for excellence as men of medicine as children of God

Phi Beta Pi
since 1921
and especially at Christmas has been hospitality encouragement home

Behind the Metal Sights

There's hardly a thing that a lady can't do for example (we pale to think) she can shoot at you if she puts her mind to it at matches and in practices she's put her mind to shooting targets with an alarming success don't be decoyed – it's the face of the rifleman social events and a few other trifles (hardly a thing that a lady can't do)

On Horseback, On Horseback. . . They Say It's Debonair

Members of the Equestrian Society.

There once was a day
When rough horse was a way;
Now the poor creature's elegant,
What should we say?

Loyolans astride him Through Lincoln Park ride him, Affright bums and lovers, (There who could abide him?)

Equestrian Club
For old horse see no sub,
And their Near North Side elegance, Hmmnnn?
Who can say nay?

CADENCE . . .
In Loyola Thought

Mike Leahy, co-editor

Bette Leibowitz

Saul Leibowitz works on art for the current issue of Cadence.

Dick Jordan supervises, as Yvone Amar types Cadence's story.

Candid
as the mind sees dawn and unaware expressing not constructing Cadence is a literary thing experience in black on white scholarship theology impossible-to-skim polemics labyrinthine love songs love songs simply simply everything, by staff or students taken improved respected nonetheless a student publication keeping pace with student minds sets Cadence

What-it-was-to-us a chip — a wisp of cloud in a jar from what-it-was-to-15,000 the only-learning moment before the years doing-learning-teaching such a thing is not 500 photographs of 98 persons each one identified a visual word — an eloquent picture what we add and leave out these have a hope of touching it: the years, the place, the experience which enables us to stammer about the experience as they are yours we only strive to remind you of this-in-yourself

Circumference

The leading ladies at Loyola (academic marvels toilers gentle politicians) are marked out

is the catchword:
 any-excellence its meaning

a certain grade-point standard quota of offices will qualify but not define their membership

they serve the school (as hostesses) each other (as a social — induction dinner)

natural selection favors nurses Grecian maids whose way's less hampered by all-contesting males

yet Circumference measures all

Experience is people these were ours:
the crackpot satirist the quiet statesman-journalist the great forceful liberal the fraternity leader of popular vision the universal man the lady in the arena of contention the patriarch of politics the basketball king the active, Christian figure anyone who stayed on campus as much as an hour after classes has encountered them all and has them as a part of his education

COLOPHON

LOYOLAN 66 was lithographed in Winston-Salem, North Carolina by Consolidated Graphic Arts Corp. of Canton, Ohio, in the quantity of 2000 containing 368 pages. The first forty-eight pages of the book are of Mohawk Superfine, Eggshell finish (80 lb. basic ivory).
The remainder of the book consists of Warren Lustro Dull (90. lb. basis white). Photos were reproduced with 133-line halftone screen. Text composition was set in Linotype; 8, 10, and 12 point Caledonia Roman and Italic. Headlines were photo-set in 24 point Times Roman. Covers were made by Durand Manufacturing Co. of Chicago. The base material is Columbia Riverside C-Grade Linen with two colors applied. Professional portrait photography was provided by Austin Field Studio and Marshall Studios.

Special thanks go to:
Paul C. Biwer for available light photography Paul Barrett for the text.
